The [illegible] the army appropriation bill [illegible] the House [illegible]

The [illegible] Wright [illegible] the present tax [illegible] merchandise [illegible] 24 cents per [illegible] was agreed to. An amendment providing [illegible] the [illegible] system [illegible] was rejected. The amendment extending the time for the withdrawal of [illegible] one year from the passage of the act was agreed to.

An amendment repealing the stamp [illegible] matches on July 1st instead of October 1st was agreed to.

Cole from the Committee on Appropriations reported the sundry civil service expenses appropriation bill with amendments, including one appropriation of $513,000 for paying the Montana Indian war claims.

In the House the Committee on Foreign Affairs reported the bill to release the Government of Japan from payment of the balance of the indemnity fund under the convention of October 1864, amounting to $[illegible]. After considerable discussion the bill passed.

The motion of Dawes to proceed to business on the Speaker's table was negatived.

There are seventy two bills on the table, the Supplementary Civil Rights bill being the last but five.

The conference report on the Army Appropriation bill agreed to; a new conference ordered on the item appropriating $200,000 for buildings at Leavenworth, Kansas.

Butler from the Ku Klux Committee reported a bill to amend the enforcement act and immediately began filibustering to prevent a vote.

Holman made a motion to adjourn. Kipple [illegible] by a motion by W[illegible] but when the House was adjourning [illegible] until Friday next. After several votes, the Democrats showing [illegible] voting, the motion to adjourn was carried by 92 to 85.

The British Lion Asleep

It is stated on good authority that Secretary Fish to-day said no reply has yet been received from the British Government relative to the supplemental article adopted by the Senate. A large number of dispatches have passed between [illegible] Schenck and [illegible] Fish during the past few days. [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] by the British Government [illegible] the supplemental article.

Secretary Fish received a dispatch from London this afternoon which he took immediately to the President. Subsequently more of the Senate Foreign Committee were in conference with the President and Secretary, but nothing has been ascertained of the character of the dispatch. It is certain that up to 5 o'clock this afternoon there was no definite response from the British Government.

Dr Howard to be Released

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The Spanish Minister to-day informed the State Department that his Government will in a few days liberate Dr. Howard and return his confiscated estate, by order of the President.

Cannot Land

The Collector at New Orleans was telegraphed to-day not to allow the landing of the Greek brigands said to be on their way to America.

EASTERN STATES

Political

Gratz Brown telegraphs that he will address a Greeley mass meeting on Monday night in the Cooper Institute.

Dispatches from Reading, Pennsylvania, state that resolutions will be offered at the Democratic State Convention to-morrow instructing delegates to vote for nobody but straight Democrats. There is a determined opposition to the endorsement of Greeley.

Jeff Davis Declares Himself

NASHVILLE, May 29.—A. J. Kellar, editor of the Memphis Avalanche, arrived here to-day and states that Jeff Davis has written a letter to Wade Hampton declaring for Greeley and giving the opinion that the Democrats should not make a nomination at Baltimore.

Louisiana Republican Convention

NEW ORLEANS, May 29.—The Pinchback Convention nominated Warmoth for Governor, Pinchback for Lieutenant Governor and passed resolutions endorsing the former's administration. They adjourned to meet on June 18 at Baton Rouge. After the adjournment Pinchback made a speech announcing that he would support the [illegible] ticket [illegible] State.

Vessel Lost

[illegible], May [illegible]—The steamer [illegible] [illegible] with eighty passengers, was totally wrecked on Sea Island ledge last night. Crew and passengers saved, but the vessel is a total wreck.

Methodist Conference

NEW YORK, May 29.—The Methodist Conference on the fifth ballot elected D. A. Wentworth of Troy editor of the Ladies' Repository; Dr. Curry editor of the Christian Advocate; Professor [illegible] editor of the [illegible] and A. F. Edwards editor of the Northwestern Advocate.

Death of Governor Shorter

EUFAULA, Alabama, May [illegible].—Ex-Governor Shorter died this morning.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

London News

LONDON, May 29.—The Derby was won by Cremorne, brother to Flurry, who was second, and Queen's Messenger was third.

Montague Bernard, one of the Joint High Commissioners, in a lecture at Oxford last night on the Treaty of Washington, said that circumstances prevented him from replying to the accusations of Cheese in the part of the British members of the Commission. [illegible] highly praised the admirable temper displayed by the American Government.

From St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, May [illegible].—Lieutenant Grant was presented to the Czar on the 18th while at Moscow.

From Madrid

MADRID, May 29.—General Sickles had an audience with Amadeus yesterday.

The inhabitants of Bilbao are indignant at Serrano's [illegible] of pardon and surrender of the insurgents of Biscay.

The Nebraska Legislature referred a liquor law to the Committee on Highways and Ferries.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

[illegible]

The Japanese [illegible] Martha at [illegible] pronounced unfashionable [illegible] utterly [illegible]

[illegible] eighteen days and everything [illegible]

A [illegible] husband who [illegible] night last week gave as an excuse that it was a late spring and that he wanted to look after the rye crop.

Buffalo has an unfortunate little boy ten years of age who peddles papers, supports his mother and gives 21 cents every week to the Grace Methodist Sabbath School.

"Are the pictures which you brought from Italy all landscapes?" said an [illegible] one day to Mrs Boffin. "Lor' bless you, no," replied the indignant lady; "they're ile paintins."

Cincinnati has of late years lost something of her prestige and pre-eminence in pork packing, but the Davis and Adams men assert that she can beat the world in packing a convention.

The prizes offered in the Boston public schools for the best essay on the prevention of cruelty to animals were, without a single exception, taken by girls, although the boys are on an average older.

Harper's Weekly enjoys the distinction of being the highest priced advertising medium in America—$2 a line for the inside and $4 a line for the outside pages. The regular edition is 150,000 copies.

The Danbury News has the following: "How any unprejudiced man can look upon the present 5 cent penny cake of maple sugar and claim that the world is growing better passes our comprehension."

A Topeka, Kansas, paper says a venerable Lo stalked into Marysville the other day with an old greasy placard attached to his breast on which was inscribed: "A poor widow with eight small children."

That [illegible] or male, the phrase "mipped in the bud," read "dipped in the mud" the other day, and when we remonstrated with him said he didn't see why we were so particular about a letter or two.

The Congregational Churches of the United States number [illegible] of these [illegible] the remaining [illegible] have settled pastors, the others [illegible] being supplied with acting pastors.

Boston proposes trying a narrow gauge railway to Lynn Beach. They've been practicing narrow gauging here ever since the liquor law went into operation, but it hasn't led to water heretofore.

There is not one doctor among the three hundred convicts in the Kansas Penitentiary, but there are thirty five "honest farmers" and one lawyer. There has been a doctor, but now there is no physician there.

The burnt district of Chicago now abounds in half dead and alive trees, the sides which fronted the fire being dead and charred from the roots up, while the opposite sides are full of sap, and the branches green with leaves.

The New Brunswick, Ga., brass band are giving entertainments for the purpose of raising money to hire a competent teacher. Sensible to the last. Let other bands do likewise.—Exchange. Good advice, but rather hard on the audience.

Never before has the tide of travel, setting across the Atlantic from both shores, reached the extent that it has this season. The steamship lines from New York are crowded with passengers and every state room is engaged up to the first of July.

It is 130 years since Handel brought out for the first time the oratorio of the Messiah. Its success was so great that at its repetition the ladies of Dublin left their crinoline at home in order that an additional one hundred listeners might be got into the room.

The editor of the Zion's Herald advocates the union of all Methodism on this continent under the Church which is mother of them all, and says that the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America will never feel perfectly happy till they all get back again under the old roof tree.

The Beloit Free Press gives notice that it has secured the services of a versatile and accomplished fighting reporter, who has been in the business near fifteen years and has in that time bitten off sixteen noses and twenty one ears, besides gouging forty eyes and killing six men outright. Good man for night locals.

"Clara, I love but thee alone," thus sighed the tender youth. "O hear me then my passion own with trembling lips and earnest tone. Indeed I speak the truth." He paused, the blush o'erspread her cheek, she let him draw her near; scarce for emotion could she speak, yet she did ask in accents meek, "How much have you a year?"

A Danbury paper says that a Salisbury German went hunting for a crow recently. He put a couple of quarts of powder and shot in his gun, shut his eyes and blazed away. The village physician promptly sews in every piece of the German as rapidly as it is found. The crow hasn't since been seen. It is likely it has left town until the excitement blows over.

FOREIGN NOTES

Gen. Trochu, the celebrated French soldier, has renounced Catholicism and become a Protestant.

Prince Bismarck retires to his estates and will abstain from active participation in affairs for several months.

The number of foreign Catholic priests expelled by the Prussian police from the city of Posen amounts to exactly 20.

The American Episcopal Church has purchased a site in the new quarter of Rome for the sum of £3,200, on which they will speedily erect a large church.

Forty seven thousand persons die annually in England of consumption, which the London Telegraph calls "a scourge compared to which the cholera is a jest and war a diversion."

Reversing the usual order of things in London recently, a Captain Cheney of the Indian army brought an action for breach of promise of marriage against a Miss Thompson, an Irish lady.

The betrothal of the Archduchess Gisela, eldest daughter of the Emperor of Austria, to Prince Leopold of Bavaria has called forth loyal congratulations from all parts of German Austria.

At the opera house in Oporto lately an actress appeared in the night scene in Fra Diavolo attired only in a night gown, and her lover, who was among the audience, shot her dead when she next came on the stage.

The Prince of Wales is reported to be far from well, having certain bodily infirmities which his physicians think may still carry him to an early grave. They recommended travel as absolutely essential to his complete recovery.

The [illegible] which appear to be troubling Switzerland as much as they do the United States are to be placed under Federal control, and the [illegible] of the experiment will be watched with considerable interest on this side of the ocean.

The largest cities in the German Empire, according to the census of December 1, 1871, are: Berlin, [illegible]; Hamburg, [illegible]; Breslau, 208,02[illegible]; Dresden, 177,02[illegible]; Munich, [illegible]; Cologne, [illegible]; and Leipzig, [illegible].

Prince Arthur is a sensible, earnest lad, and now we have new proof of it. For the first time in the history of the dynasty a Prince of the blood opened a railroad the other day, and it was Prince Arthur. After the address, prayers, etc., an ornamental spade was handed the youth and he was requested to turn the first sod into a silver wheelbarrow, all in a figurative and symbolic way, you know. He pitched in, however, like a gardener and broke the ornamental spade handle at the first stroke. Nothing daunted, he put his gloved hand into the turf, and soon landed a good sized sod into the barrow.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

EASTERN STATES

New York News

NEW YORK, May [illegible].—[illegible] Hellgate and [illegible] have [illegible] shipped [illegible] America.

Methodist Conference

In the Methodist Conference to-day Dr. [illegible] was the only candidate for editor of the California Christian Advocate.

The ceremony of decoration met with considerable interference by the rain, but a large procession marched to various cemeteries and decorated the graves of Union soldiers.

Political News.

CHARLESTON, May [illegible].—The Charleston Republican, the oldest radical paper in the South, comes out in favor of Greeley and Brown.

ATLANTA, May 30.—A meeting of Democrats to appoint delegates to the State Convention at Atlanta, Ga., in June was held at Clinton to-day. Stephens advocated the nomination of a Democrat for President, seeing no difference between Grant and Greeley. General Wright would abide the action of the Baltimore Convention, but would support Greeley in preference to Grant. W. H. Hilliard and others endorsed the Liberal movement. Resolutions were unanimously adopted in favor of an alliance with the Liberal party. This is the first important Democratic meeting in the State and is regarded as an index of popular opinion in Georgia.

Murder and Hanging

LOUISVILLE, May 30.—In Owen county yesterday John Branham split his wife's head open with an ax, killing her instantly.

CINCINNATI, May [illegible].—John Branham, who murdered his wife in Owen county, Ky., was taken from the jail last night by a mob, and hanged.

Delegates Arrived

CHICAGO, May [illegible].—Thirty Pacific coast delegates to the Philadelphia Convention have arrived here.

The Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Illinois called a meeting of the Committee to implement a call for the State Convention to elect delegates to Baltimore and providing also for the nomination of a State ticket. This is part of the programme for placing a liberal ticket for State offices in the field.

Convicted

[illegible], May [illegible].—The jury in the case of Barclay [illegible] Chase last November returned a verdict of murder in the first degree.

Later from Jeff Davis

MEMPHIS, May [illegible].—A telegram has been received from Nashville stating that Jeff Davis wrote a letter to Wade Hampton favoring Greeley. This is denied by Davis, who says he has expressed no opinion in the matter.

The Supplemental Treaty

NEW YORK, May [illegible].—A Washington dispatch says: The President yesterday showed a leading Senator dispatches received from Minister Schenck on the supplemental article. The first of these represents that the British Government is dissatisfied and cannot accept the Senate substitute unless another supplement is adopted making the explanations clear. To this, Secretary Fish replied that no further changes would be conceded.

Another subsequent dispatch reiterates that the changes in the article adopted by the Senate were not clear to the English Government.

Yesterday Secretary Fish assured Minister Thornton that the Senate resolution was the ultimatum, and that further obstinacy on the part of the British Government could only be regarded by our Government as evidence of a desire to see the treaty fail altogether.

A dispatch sent to Minister Schenck yesterday states that the British Government must accept the Senate proposition or none at all, or the responsibility for the failure of the treaty rests upon England. The President does not think there will be an exigency for an extra session of the Senate, but if further treaty negotiations ensue, the event will become necessary.

The papers think, and justly so, we think, that San Francisco is capable of becoming a great distributing center for many of the most important products to a point as far east as the Mississippi, including all the Pacific States and Territories, as well as Texas, Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Iowa. Already its local tea trade reaches St. Louis and its coffee trade has extended to that city also. San Francisco can supply the teas and silks of China and Japan to all the United States, the coffees of Java, Ceylon and Costa Rica and the sugar of the islands of China, Manila, Mauritius, Batavia, and from the wool and copper of Australia to all west of the Mississippi, and in return send back manufactured articles from all parts of the United States. One would think that the development of such a commerce would be well worth the attention of Congress.—Tribune.

A letter from Napoleon, dated Chiselhurst, May 12th, is published, in which the deposed Emperor says:

I am responsible for Sedan. The army fought heroically with an enemy double its own strength. After 14,000 men had been killed and wounded I saw the battle was merely one of desperation; and the army's honor having been saved, I as [illegible] my sovereign right and unfurled a flag of truce. It was impossible that the immolation of 60,000 men could save France. I obeyed a cruel and inexorable necessity. My heart was broken, but my conscience was tranquil.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Grover's Police.

The work of making special policemen to overawe and intimidate voters on election day is going on briskly at head-quarters. The "Boss" is gathering up strikers, rounders, and disreputable characters, many of whom are not voters, as fast as he can, and is swearing them in. It is said that about two hundred are to be employed. The object is to collect them in masses about the polls, crowd out legal voters, browbeat, intimidate and threaten to make arrests, and to repeat, with additions, the various outrages perpetrated by the police four years ago.

Of course all understand that work like this is what Grover's police was organized to perform. It was set up as a machine to use in running elections, and to furnish material to line the pockets of the Oro Fino Ring. That a concerted and energetic attempt will be made to prevent a fair election no one need to doubt. Multnomah county is known to be largely Republican, and the problem which the Ring proposes is how to stifle the voice of the people.

No doubt many of the special policemen who have been engaged are promised considerable sums of money for their services. The Ring, of course, will try to get it out of the city. Now, the men to whom these promises are made run some chance of being deceived. The city will not pay them—not a dollar. The charter expressly forbids such payment, and if it did not, the Common Council would not be likely to make an appropriation for the purpose. Let it be understood, then, that no money will be got out of the city treasury to pay anybody who may be employed as a special policeman.

This is a State and county, not a municipal, election, and the police have no business to [illegible] with it. Nor should they be allowed to do so. The Sheriff is the executive officer of the county, and he should, and we doubt not he will, if it becomes necessary, take this matter in hand. He can appoint any number of Deputy Sheriffs that may be [illegible] to preserve order and insure a fair and full election. The judges of election, too, have great powers in the premises. They can order the arrest of any person who obstructs the freedom of the election, and send him off to jail. If an attempt be made to carry the election with the police,—and this is now the intention,—the result may be the filling of the county jail with these tools of the Ring. Let all Republicans stand up for their rights and be fully prepared for any emergency.

Inconsistent Anti-Subsidists.

According to the Herald there is danger that in case the Republicans carry the Legislature, the people will be oppressed with subsidies in the interest of the "railroad King." The Portland subsidy of two years ago is mentioned to justify this allegation. But that subsidy was voted by a Democratic Legislature, its strongest advocates being such Democrats as Burch and Hayden of Polk county. That it had Republican support also, is true; for it was believed by [illegible], without distinction of party, to be a very important and useful measure for the State and for this city. And, if the west side railroad could not have been built otherwise, this subsidy would have [illegible]. In order to get the railroad to Portland, [illegible] gave a large sum of money, and the subsidy was a first class investment. It has benefitted Portland in an extraordinary degree. It has contributed to the growth of this city, has strengthened public confidence in its future, and has greatly enhanced the value of property. But Portland is not interested to the same extent in any [illegible] enterprise. The other counties of the [illegible] part of the State, with two exceptions, are already reached by railroad, and those two counties have a prospect of obtaining railway facilities soon. There is no probability that a single subsidy for a railroad will be proposed in the Legislature, because there is no pressing need for such subsidy. But there is reason to believe that a further subsidy will be demanded for the canal and locks, and the Democratic record as a party opposed to subsidy is not sufficiently clear to warrant a belief that it would not grant it, even if the school fund were to be again violated for that purpose.

We do not know of any man who made money by the legislation of the last session.—Herald.

We do. Here are "them Oro Fino Fellows" making a great deal of money out of the police bill, by which the municipal rights of Portland are taken away. The profits of this job, the Herald used to tell us before it became the police gazette, are very great. Then there is the litigant bill, by which the Herald is enabled to swindle the public out of several thousand dollars a year. Then there is the swamp land bill, under which Judge Shattuck has acquired a "monopoly" of 100,000 acres of land. Oh! yes; we know of men who made money by the legislation of the last session.

The East Portland Era says that the OREGONIAN was "unnecessarily severe upon Mr. Nesmith in reporting a former speech;" and hence Nesmith's rage in his speech of Tuesday evening. If we were "unnecessarily severe" on him in having reported only small portions of his "speech," what would have been thought if we had reported it all? "What," exclaimed Æschines, in speaking to a friend who had been reading a speech of an opponent, "what would you have thought if you had heard the beast?"

The San Francisco Chronicle publishes a list of the newspapers in California with their present political tendencies. That list shows forty-seven Republican papers in favor of Grant, two independent papers pronounced for Greeley, ten Democratic papers that desire a Democratic nomination for President, eight Democratic papers that favor the indorsement of Greeley, and two Republican papers that seem to favor Greeley.

Republicans of Portland! be not bullied from the polls by a hireling police, wielded by unscrupulous men. They who have robbed you of your municipal rights, and are gorging themselves with the plunder, will perpetrate any outrage to carry the point. Be prepared for them.

Attorney General Williams will speak at Oregon City to-day. To-morrow evening he will address the citizens of Multnomah county, at the Court House.

Robert H. Milroy of Indiana has been appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs of Washington Territory.

Hon. J. H. Mitchell will speak at the Court House this (Friday) evening.

A Montana town has a band of Vigilantes who propose to give all rogues a taste of lynch law. Horse thieves will be made a specialty.

Further Explanation.

PORTLAND, May 30, 1872.

S. W. RAWLET, Esq.—Sir: My attention has been called to an editorial paragraph which appeared in the East Portland Era of to-day, headed "An Explanation." Permit me to say that one or two statements therein have given me some surprise, but I attribute them more to the present high fever of political excitement than to a wilful disposition on your part to misrepresent. Your editor says: "Only a few weeks have gone by since he (U. E. Hicks) favored the passive policy and denounced those papers which declared against its adoption, but he now professes to despise 'false pretensions.'"

I do despise "false pretensions," but that I ever favored "passive policy" is false, also I never have on any occasion favored such a policy or advocated its adoption. The East Portland Era did, for a time, favor such policy, but, sir, you know this occurred after I had absolved my connection with it.

I should be sorry to do anything that would disgust sensible and honest people, and have always endeavored to merit the esteem and confidence of my friends, but if my refusal upon this occasion to support a mongrel or fusion ticket in the county of Multnomah makes me a political turncoat, then I must forever be so regarded, and your attempt to read me out of the party will be a success. If in these later days I must abandon all principle, cast off party name, and unite or rather go to a few disaffected and disappointed Republicans and engage in a disreputable scramble for small offices, to constitute myself one of your style of Democracy, I'll have none of it. If, to be a Democrat, I am compelled to support a ticket gotten up by four or five sore-headed and soft-headed Abolitionists and foisted upon the public under a misnamed "People's Ticket," then I am no Democrat of that sort. If I have to unsex myself and become a Dolly Varden to retain your esteem and confidence, I prefer to remain as nature made me—a man. I remember, some years ago, participating in a rejoicing over a victory won by the Democracy of Portland, upon a straight ticket, on which were one or two names that now appear on the fusion ticket; but that victory soon afterward turned to ashes.

In conclusion, my dear sir, don't get alarmed through fear that any one who reads your paper will entertain a suspicion that I have anything to do with it. Your patrons have long since found out that I have ceased taking Unk Weed.

As the Era will not probably appear again before the State election, and as the editorial to which I have referred was doubtless written for political effect, I have requested the OREGONIAN to give space to this open letter.

Yours truly, URBAN E. HICKS.

The County Hospital.

PORTLAND, May 30, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

A communication appears this morning in the Herald concerning the management of the County Hospital, which is scandalously false in all particulars. It is said that "within the last fortnight three men have been turned out who are utterly unfitted for work, one suffering from diabetes, another having his right arm totally disabled, and the third with one side paralyzed." The facts are these: The man suffering from diabetes left the Hospital voluntarily. The other two were discharged by the physician's instructions, for disobeying orders. It is also charged that the inmates are "insufficiently fed and attended to." This is a totally unfounded allegation. Doubtless it comes from a wholly irresponsible source. The Superintendent has always invited examination as to his management, and it has repeatedly been pronounced satisfactory by the County Court and by Grand Juries which have made investigations. If the editor of the Herald, or any others, wish for information, will they be kind enough to call and examine for themselves?

State Sunday School Convention.

ALBANY, May 30, 1872.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The Third Annual Meeting of this organization was commenced in Albany on Tuesday last, Rev. Dr. Atkinson in the Chair, Rev. Wm. Roberts, Secretary. After the opening prayer by Rev. P. M. Starr, the address of greeting was delivered by Rev. S. G. Irvin. This was followed by a special prayer by Rev. Mr. Geary. Then followed an interesting and instructive sermon on Biblical Instruction, by Rev. Wm. Roberts. E. J. Northrup, J. Quinn Thornton, and Rev. S. G. Irvin were appointed a committee on nominations. Rev. C. W. Shaw, of Albany, was elected President for the ensuing year, and E. J. Northrup Secretary.

A very interesting time was had; the various interests and wants of Sunday Schools and kindred questions were discussed, and with the conviction that the Convention had been a success, it adjourned Wednesday evening, to meet in Salem next year.

A DELEGATE.

Striking Similarity.

Our readers who will take the pains to read the following, taken from a California paper, in reference to certain measures regarding land in another State, will see a very close resemblance between the results of the law authorizing the issue of the Sioux or Dacotah, half-breed Scrip and the thieving Swamp Land bill passed by the last Oregon Legislature. Our exchange says:

"The Joint Committee of the Legislature, appointed to inquire into the "condition of public and State lands lying within the limits of the State of California," submitted report just on the eve of adjournment, and too late to render its suggestions of any value in shaping legislation. From this report we copy the following emphatic denouncement of the operations of Sioux, or Dacotah, half-breed scrip, evidently penned by a mind of unusual virility, and which will be found on page nine of the report:

With regard to what is commonly known as "half-breed scrip," which may, in all respects, be viewed as one of the worst forms of fraud practiced upon our people by designing schemers, there is a fair prospect that the courts will deal with this matter, and give an enormity unparalleled for its brazen-effrontery, and unequalled venality, its just deserts. It is a fixed fact that, through the agency of the most nefarious swindle, patents have been issued to property honestly acquired by the industrious settler, and held in peaceable and undisputed possession for a long series of years. In one instance an extensive hotel, with expensive improvements belonging to the same, was seized upon by this means, and much vexations and costly litigation has arisen from this unblushing species of rascality. The outrageous wrongs committed upon peaceful communities by unscrupulous swindlers through this channel, are well known to be founded in the basest fraud, backed up by resorts to the blackest perjury. Under these circumstances it is gratifying to be able to state that there is a fair prospect that the parties engaged in this nefarious business will be brought to realize, in its fullest sense, "the avenging power of retributive justice."

BRAZIL ON ITS TRAVELS.—An interview has been had with the Emperor of Brazil, who recently returned after a long journey in Europe. Don Pedro is much pleased with what he saw, and was especially delighted with Germany and England. He learned a great deal and he is anxious to introduce reforms in his Government. He remarked, however, that he must move discreetly. He feels the lack of energy in Brazil which characterizes other people, but he hopes for progress and improvement. The Emperor has never visited the United States, but he is anxious to do so. He could certainly derive more lessons and examples of progress and popular government here than in the Old World.

The Salem Mercury says: A private dispatch received in Salem from Hon. A. B. Meacham, contains the sad news of the death of his brother Mr. Harvey Meacham. The dispatch states that Mr. M. was killed by a falling tree at Lee's Encampment, in the Blue Mountains, May 29th. No further particulars have been learned.

W. D. Pettinger, Superintendent of Common Schools for Washington county, has filed his annual report, which shows the following state of educational matters in that county: Number of legal voters, 793; male scholars, 1,821; female, 882; amount expended for schools, $6,462 81; number of districts reporting, 37; number of months taught in county, 196; average amount paid teachers per month, $37 74.

The Common School Superintendent of Union county reports as follows: Number of legal voters, 650; persons between the ages of 4 and 20, 1,046; quarters taught, 2; districts reporting, 15; not reporting, 3; whole number of districts, 18; average attendance, 32½; value of school houses, $400; number of female teachers, 6; male teachers, 15; average wages of male, per month, $75; female, per month, $50.

We learn that Rev. Mr. Hoberg of the M. E. Church, member of the Conference Camp Ground Committee, has consummated arrangements with Mr. Holladay in respect to a Conference Camp Ground at Canby, Clackamas county. Mr. Holladay has donated a large tract of land to this purpose on the most satisfactory terms. The situation is a delightful one, and the liberality of Mr. H. in this matter is notably worthy.

The common school statistics of Lane county, shows the following: Number of legal voters, 1,439; persons between the ages of 4 and 20, 2,877; male scholars, 1,406; female scholars, 1,471; quarters taught, 76; average attendance, 24; received from County Treasurer, $3,500, received from State as interest, coin, $1,558 08, currency, $1,574 34; amount for distribution this year, $6,604 42; amount of tax levied and collected, $247 25; amount apportioned to each student, $2 28; number of districts in the county, 64; failing to report, 15; average wages to male teachers, $40; female, $25; number of quarters taught in district, 2½.

The protection of the Arizona settlers from Indian aggressions costs annually nearly seven hundred dollars a head for every resident in that terrified Territory. The question is whether it wouldn't be cheaper in the long run, as well as pleasanter for all parties concerned, to remove the white settlers somewhere else, and allow them a small income on condition of their staying away from Arizona.

Horrors of a Burning Ship.

TERRIBLE HOLOCAUST OF COOLIES.

In an editorial in the London Telegraph of April 22d occurs this statement:

A catastrophe almost unparalleled in horror—disclosing the gross cruelties of the Macao emigrant trade by one last and most terrible demonstration—happened in the China seas last May, and is recorded in a Parliamentary report just published. A vessel, called the Don Juan, set sail on the 4th of that month from Macao, bound to Peru, with 655 coolies on board, who had been kidnapped and shipped under the flag and with the authority of the Portugese Government. Once on board, this large multitude was placed literally in prison—penned on the main deck and fastened down by three iron gratings, which closed the hatches, ten coolies at a time only being allowed to come on deck. The ship sailed in fair weather from Macao. On the second day of the voyage, as declared by Herker, an American seaman, the captain selected twenty coolies and put them in irons, with much brutality, as an example to the others. On the third day, a difficulty arose about the food passed down to the emigrants. The interpreter got angry and struck those who complained with his cane, whereupon the wretched coolies made a rush at their European jailors. The iron hatches were immediately slammed back upon them, and, when the poor creatures beat upon the beams and planks to get air, muskets were fired down into the crowd. It then appears that, in desperation, some few of the coolies set fire to a storeroom forward, hoping to force the crew to throw their prison open. The sailors tried to pump water down upon the seat of the conflagration, but the frenzied men below passed the hose out of the port-holes, so that the pumping became useless. Then the fire spread beyond all control, and volumes of thick smoke rolled into the main deck, choking the mass of coolies at either end, who had taken no part in the previous proceedings. Red tongues of flame and suffocating clouds filled the ship below hatches, while the miserable prisoners beat at the iron gratings, tore at the fastenings of the deck, and even attempted to get up to the air through the ventilators. The port-holes, however, were fastened, and the dead lights were too small to allow of a man's body passing, and the ventilators were barred so that there was no escape. In two hours the fire was "established on the main deck," which means that scores of the Chinese had been roasted or smothered; yet the crew never took a single step toward saving the lives of the imprisoned wretches. They merely lowered three boats on their own account, and pushed off from the burning vessel, leaving all that immense mass of human creatures pent in a floating hell of fear and agony. The sea calm; the hatches might surely have been opened at the last moment; yet the Don Juan's captain and hands put off while the ship blazed, and while the coolies perished inside with frightful cries and screams. The scoundrel master and crew saved their villainous lives, a junk picked them up and the same witness who tells this says that when the twenty Chinese [illegible] who were upon the forecastle broke away their fetters and swam towards the junk, they were ruthlessly pushed off into the sea to drown. Meantime, in their awful terror, the survivors of the 655 below [illegible] means of bursting the hatches [illegible] were by this [illegible] killed by the throes of the [illegible] down in the frenzied rush for life to the upper deck. About one hundred [illegible] at last emerged from the Golgotha of anguish and leaped at once into the sea. A few managed to get hold of spars and [illegible] hung upon these till some [illegible] picked them up next morning. The [illegible] were mortally injured when they escaped, or were drowned or crushed by the falling chains and spars of the ship. But at least five hundred were first scorched to death, [illegible] and trampled dead, before the infernal prison gate was forced by the breaking open of the hatches, which the captain and crew had so shamefully left fastened.

Tilton vs. Woodhull.

The New York World relates the curious story which we print below:

It appears that Mr. Tilton has proved a gay deceiver toward one of Mr. Greeley's rivals, and that the deserted fair one, who, according to Mr. Tilton's biography of her, is in constant communication with Demosthenes, is indignant at the treatment she has received. We all know that Demosthenes used to insist on "Action, action, action," and it may be that he was only putting his theory into practice when, through the medium of Mr. Woodhull, he "bonneted" the fickle Tilton. Explain it how we may, here is the World's story.

A painful rumor is current in our neighboring city of Brooklyn to the effect that a personal difficulty of a grave character has arisen between the spirit of Demosthenes and the accomplished editor of the Golden Age. It appears that upon the nomination to the Presidency of Mrs. Victoria C. Woodhull by the Convention for giving everybody everything, Demosthenes called upon Mr Tilton to fulfill the expectations of the spirit world aroused by his interesting biography of that gifted woman and "come out" in her support. To this Mr. Tilton replied that he had already "gone in" for Mr. Greeley, in sign whereof he invited the attention of the illustrious orator to a bran new white hat which he was at the moment wearing. The enraged Greek, without another word, raised the right hand which had essayed to shake the Macedonian throne, and knocked the white hat over his eyes. A high joint commission consisting of Stephen Pearl Andrews, Brigham Young and the ghost of Fanny Wright, is now sitting on the case, which it is hoped, may be settled without bloodshed.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS SAY.—So far as we can ascertain, says an exchange, the Democrats in San Francisco seem to be considerably divided—some favoring and others opposing distinctive nominations of candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency at Baltimore upon the 9th of July, the day fixed by the National Committee for holding their National Convention. This difference of opinion may be harmonized before Convention assembles, but it is extremely doubtful. The old dyed-in-the-wool Democrats can never, they say, swallow Greeley, and are anxious for a regular nomination. In conversing with a large number of Democrats among the working classes we learn that they prefer Grant to Greeley because he is sound on the labor question.

Still Another Remarkable Cure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10, 1871.

DR. A. M. LOBYEA & Co.—For two years I was afflicted with Rheumatism, and tried all the known remedies, but experienced nothing more than a temporary relief, the disease always returning. Some months since I concluded to take your Unk Weed Remedy, and the result was a Speedy and Permanent Cure, the Rheumatism being entirely eradicated from the system. The "UNK" is also a Tonic of the very highest order. It increases the appetite, and invigorates the body. I cheerfully bear testimony to its good effect upon me, and feel sure that it will do all you claim for it.

Very truly yours,
J. W. TRIPP,
(Of McGraw & Tripp, Attorneys-at-Law),

The Daily Oregonian.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY [illegible], 1872.

CITY.

Obscene Prints and Papers.—The [illegible] of this city have frequently made [illegible] the pernicious tendency of exposing to view and sale a certain class of [illegible] such as the [illegible] kindred sheets. In Syracuse, New York, certain vendors of such literature were recently [illegible] by the statute. An exchange, in reviewing the subject, makes the following severe but just reflections: "Obscene prints, vulgar books, and indecent pictures are properly made the subjects of legal prosecution and punishment. Upon the matured mind they produce little or no effect beyond disgust, but upon young and susceptible intellects, receiving impressions with avidity, they create prurient ideas, vicious tendencies, and demoralizing results. This fact being too universally admitted to need argument, how can journalists, laying claims to respectability, permit their papers to be the vehicles of moral contamination to a young and impressible community by publishing the filthy details of criminal cases in our courts, or narrating the lascivious deeds of fallen humanity? What shadow of excuse can they offer for assisting in the most insidious manner to debauch the families of their patrons? Because obscene words were really spoken, and lascivious deeds actually committed, they must be served up in all their filthy details, to corrupt the hearts and minds of our wives, sisters, daughters, and others, whom it is our greatest desire to preserve from contact with immorality. It is a vile and foul libel upon the community, to charge that its tastes are so vulgar that the journal which does not cater to the lowest requirements of debased people, must lose its patronage and respect. It is beyond precedent, the most flagrant insult that a journalist can put upon its readers. Actual [illegible] gives no warrant for its narration in filthy terms; nor do the disgusting revelations of the Police Court authorize their introduction into the families and social circles of decent people. So long as we have journalists and journals boasting the largest circulation, which publish to the world that this community will patronize only such papers as have a debauching tendency, just so long we must expect to hold a very degraded [illegible] in the estimation of others."

Complimentary Recommendation.—We were yesterday shown an official letter received by Mr. A. S. Gross, of this city, from Mr. C. A. C. [illegible]berg, of San Francisco, Consul General of the German Empire for the Pacific coast. The letter was designed as a letter of introduction to Miss Anna Mehlig. The writer spoke of this lady in the strongest complimentary terms possible. He officially pronounces her a musician of world-wide reputation, and, as an artiste, without an equal in this age. This declaration comes from high authority and from one who is well qualified to judge of the merits of this lady as a fine musician.

Monthly Concert.—The following is the programme of exercises for the Monthly Concert of the Taylor-street M. E. Sunday-school, to be held next Sunday, June 2d, at 2 o'clock P. M.: Singing by the School; Prayer; Declamation—Charity; Quartette—"Let us help each other;" Dialogue Infant Class; Recitation—"Hand in hand with the angels;" Duet—"Angels are watching us;" Recitation—"Coming." Congregational Chorus—"I love to tell the story;" Reading—"The voice in the twilight;" Quartette; Address—J. M. Gill; Doxology and Benediction.

Information Desired.—Rev. Samuel Matthews, of Clear Creek, Clackamas county, desires information regarding a young man named Charles Hamline Fate, who left his home in Iowa two or three years ago for California. He came to California, and wrote back to his mother, who lives in Iowa, that he was coming to Oregon. His mother has heard nothing from him since, except a rumor that he was living in Oregon. Any person knowing his place of residence, or anything in regard to him, will please address his uncle.

Filled.—When it became known yesterday morning that Miss Mehlig, the great pianiste, had arrived, a great rush was made for seats at Gray's music store. By 5 o'clock in the morning over 150 seats had been secured. At 1 o'clock all the seats for the first concert were secured, and a large number taken for the second and third concerts. The indications are very fair that the enterprise will be a grand financial success.

No Meeting.—In consequence of the celebration of the Grand Army of the Republic of Decoration Day, last evening, the usual meeting of the [illegible] County Campaign Club, was omitted. Hon. J. H. Mitchell will speak at the Court House this evening, and Attorney General Williams to-morrow evening at the same place.

Republicans, Rally.—Let every Republican bear in mind that Hon. John H. Mitchell will deliver a speech at the Court House this evening, to commence at 8 o'clock, in which he proposes to discuss the great, leading, and absorbing political topics of the day. Let the house be crowded to its fullest capacity.

Concerts.—Miss Mehlig arrived on the steamer, and will give her first concert at the new Masonic Hall this evening. The next concert will be given at the same place on next Tuesday evening, June 4th. Her third and last concert will be given at the same place on Friday evening following.

Implements.—The John L. Stephens brought up a large quantity of agricultural implements. Among the implements is a Nichols & Sheppard Vibrator. This implement combines a mowing, threshing and cleaning machine within itself. The different parts can be used together or separately.

Freight.—The following quantities of freight were brought down on the train last evening: 913 hides; 20 lbs. sheep pelts, 224 lbs. furs; 2 sacks flour; 1,057 lbs. bacon, 1,621 lbs. wheat; 1,257 lbs. deer skins; 368 lbs. tow; 735 lbs. eggs; 236 lbs. merchandise; 1,326 lbs. wool.

The Hart Case.—In the U. S. District Court, yesterday morning, Messrs. Hill, Thayer, and Williams, counsel for M. S. Hart, convicted of fraud, were allowed until to-morrow to file a motion for a new trial. The prisoner was remanded to the custody of the U. S. Marshal.

Soon Here.—A private dispatch was received here yesterday which stated that General Rufus Saxton, who started for this city from Washington on the 17th inst., had left San Francisco overland and may be expected to arrive in Portland in a few days.

Apricots.—The John L. Stephens brought up a considerable quantity of apricots from San Francisco. These delicious fruits are the first of the kind in this market, and will no doubt meet with prompt sale at very fair prices.

Stock.—Two consignments of sheep, one of 40 head and another of 38 head, were brought up on the steamer yesterday morning. She also brought up a fine race horse. The animals are all in good condition.

Fine Wool.—We were shown yesterday at Beck & Waldman's a specimen of remarkably fine, long wool from William Sypher's, near Salem. This wool is ten inches in length and almost as fine as silk.

Hacks.—Two fine hacks were brought up on the last steamer for the Oregon Transfer Company. They cost in San Francisco $1,500, and are among the finest vehicles in the city.

For Excursions.—A number of seats were taken yesterday from the steamship wharf to the west side workshop. They will be used on platform cars on picnic excursions.

Passengers.—The steamship John L. Stephens arrived at this port yesterday at 4 o'clock A. M. She brought a heavy freight and 119 cabin and 194 steerage passengers.

At Oregon City.—Attorney General Williams will speak at the Court House in Oregon City this evening. He will doubtless be honored by a large audience.

For San Francisco.—The time of the sailing of the John L. Stephens is advertised to be on next Saturday evening.

Soldiers.—Twelve soldiers came up on the last steamer, on their way to San Juan.

A Favorable Notoriety.—The good reputation of "Brown's Bronchial Troches" for the relief of Coughs, Colds, and Throat Diseases, has given them a favorable notoriety.

DECORATION DAY.

CELEBRATION OF DECORATION DAY BY MEMBERS OF THE GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT THE COURT HOUSE.

Yesterday, having been appointed by the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, for decorating the graves of those who lost their lives during the late Rebellion, the members of Baker Post, assisted by a delegation from Russell Post, duly celebrated the day with the usual memorial rites, at the Court House last evening. In pursuance of a general invitation, the several military companies of the city, accompanied by General Bell and Staff, participated in the exercises. A number of discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, who had been identified in different capacities with the late war, accepted the cordial invitation extended, and also joined in the procession.

A little past six o'clock, the East Portland Band came over and proceeded to the Hall, near the corner of First and Madison streets, where the procession was to be formed. About seven o'clock the procession started. The line of march was as follows: Down First to Washington, up Washington to Third, down Third to Pine, down Pine to Front, up Front to Salmon, up Salmon to Fourth, and thence to the Court House, where an immense crowd awaited them. The procession was formed in the following order:

First—East Portland Band preceded by Gen. Bell and Staff; Second—Washington Guard in full uniform; Third—Montgomery Guard; Fourth—Emmet Guard; Fifth—Portland Light Battery; Sixth—Members of Baker Post, headed by Post Adjutant E. W. Ryan; Seventh—Members of Russell Post, No. 3; Eighth—Discharged Soldiers and Sailors (not members); Ninth—Carriage containing General E. R. S. Canby, and Dr. Bodman, of the Navy; Tenth—Carriage containing four young ladies: Misses Eva Ford, Bowlsby, Beal and Collins; Eleventh—Carriages containing ladies carrying bouquets; Twelfth—Delegation of Firemen; Thirteenth—Mexican Veterans.

The procession, on arriving at the Court House, filed in and were seated. The center tier of seats were reserved for the military companies, and fire delegations. The seats on each side of the Judge's stand were occupied by the members of the different Posts, band, members of the choir, officers, Chaplain, invited guests, ladies, etc., etc. The Judge's stand was occupied by Department Commander C. P. Crandall, Post Commander J. P. Reynolds, and J. M. Patterson, Post Commander of Russell Post. Above the stand was conspicuously displayed the Nation's banner. The several tables and desks were decorated with a profusion of choice and beautiful bouquets, and a circular table literally groaned under a burden of floral offerings.

The exercises commenced by the band discoursing appropriate music—"Hail Columbia."

The immense audience was called to order by the Post Commander, J. P. Reynolds, who, in a few appropriate remarks, stated the objects of the occasion.

This was followed with a song by the choir, consisting of Misses I. M. Anderson and Helen Carson and Messrs. Geo. A. Buchanan and W. C. Noon. The song was "Keller's American Hymn." Prof. Nesfield presided at the piano.

Post Adjutant E. W. Ryan came forward and delivered the opening address, which was as follows:

Friends and Comrades: When civil war shook our land with its earthquakes, and swept over it with its besom of fire, its desolating hand reached not the shores of the Pacific. Oregon's green fields and fair gardens were not trampled and impoverished by the hosts of contending armies. Here we have no blood-stained battle fields, nor graves to weep o'er, to teach us with their mute eloquence the noble beauty of patriotism, or the glory of self-sacrifice. Yet, while this occasion is for consecration rather than for sorrow, pause we a moment to drop a tear of sympathy with the widows and orphaned hearts who miss the loving caress of a vanished hand, and listen in vain for a voice that is still. Profane not the hour with unworthy thoughts; hushed be all party strife, rebuked all vain ambition. As the nations of the past had their memorial rites in honor of those who had fallen in the battles of their country, so do we have ours; and another circuit of the seasons brings again to us the day set apart as sacred to the memory of our fallen comrades, and on this 30th day of May in thousands of quiet churchyards millions have assembled to pay a nation's grateful tribute at the sepulchres of its fallen and immortal brave. We are assembled here with no selfish motives, or political schemes in view, but to give an external expression of our feelings, and to manifest our appreciation of the services and sacrifices of those of our comrades who perilled and laid down their lives in defense of our common heritage. Our comrades kept with us the vigils of the camp; their hearts thrilled with ours, inspired with the same loyal feelings; they shared with us the agony of defeat, the exultations of victory; they marched under the folds of the same loved banner, and lost their lives in defense of Liberty and Union, and it is well and wise for us who survive that mighty and glorious contest, and who enjoy the fruits of the victory, to refresh our patriotism and purify our faith by the celebration of these beautiful memorial rites, and pay our tribute of respect to their memory by strewing upon their graves Nature's choicest flowers.

The address was followed by an appropriate and beautifully rendered song, "Mountains of Life."

Col. David Taggart, the orator of the occasion, was introduced by Departmental Commander, C. P. Crandall. The Colonel delivered a very able and eloquent address of about an hour in length.

At the close, the band discoursed a few strains of the "Dead March in Saul." The band paused after playing a few bars, and the Post Commander, J. P. Reynolds, came forward and said:

As the representative of the Grand Army of the Republic in the State of Oregon, the solemn ceremonies of this occasion are under your charge, may we ever feel grateful to the Guardian Hand that has protected and preserved us, while so many of our comrades have sacrificed their lives in defence of Liberty, Justice and Union.

C. P. Crandall, Department Commander, calls up and says: Comrades, we are about to proceed to the ceremony of symbolizing the beautiful memorial rite of decorating the graves of those comrades who have fallen in defence of right. Let us unite with the Chaplain in invoking a blessing. Their life's warfare is accomplished and fought out to victory; their crown is fairly won, and under the banner of the Prince of Peace they have their great reward. In memory of the honored and heroic dead, I deposit these flowers.

Department Commander, C. P. Crandall, said "Comrades, we are about to proceed to symbolize the beautiful memorial rite of decorating the graves of our comrades who have fallen in defense of the right." (Calling up the Grand Army.) "Let us unite with our Chaplain in invoking the Divine blessing upon our proceedings."

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Kimball.

Dirge by the band.

Department Commander said: We come to renew our memory of the men who stood sentry over the Nation in its darkest hours, and who, in summer's fervid heat and winter's cold and storms, upheld the flag of our country and carried it through the tempests of battle to glorious victory, and to prove by these rites that their memory with us is a sacred heritage. Let us, at least, not say that Republics are ungrateful. This immense assemblage here demonstrates that our comrades whose fortune it was to die, that their country might live, are gratefully remembered by their surviving comrades and countrymen. Never shall they perish from our affectionate memory; nor shall their names be ever erased from the bright roll of honor—the roll of the names of men whom the Republic delights to honor. We left our enmities on the battle-field, but for the humblest of our comrades we hold a crown of remembrance, brighter than the diadems of Princes or the gorgeous tinselry of wealth.

The Department Commander called up the Grand Army. Then descending with the Commanders of Baker and Russell Posts, to the left of the monument, he said:

"In honor of our comrades slain in battle or dying of wounds received in defence of all we hold most dear, we bestow these garlands and strew these flowers."

Four young ladies here came forward and hung each a beautiful floral wreath upon the monument.

Then four comrades from the right and left advanced one at a time, and with appropriate remarks, strewed flowers about the monument.

The dirge strains ceased, and "When we Were Soldier Boys," was excellently rendered by the Choir.

H. H. Northrup, Esq., was called out by the Department Commander. He declined to speak, owing to the lateness of the hour, but repeated in a very touching and beautiful style the "Dying Soldier."

Attorney General Williams was next invited to address the vast audience. He made a few very appropriate remarks, and then the crowd was dismissed.

The court room was literally jammed with the wealth, intelligence, and refined of Portland, and throughout the lengthy exercises of the evening, the strictest decorum was observed. The occasion was a grand success, and formed an important event in the history of that organization in this city.

AMUSEMENTS.

Emmet Guard Picnic.—Under the auspices of this military company, a picnic excursion will be given to Strawberry Valley on next Sunday. The grounds selected are near Milwaukie. The company have spared no expense or preparations to make it a success, and one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season. A boat has been chartered and a band of music engaged for the day. The annual picnics given by this company have always been very creditably conducted and resulted to the satisfaction of those who attended. We are authorized by Capt. Wiley, of the company, to state that no persons of disreputable character will be allowed to attend. Read the advertisement in another column for full particulars.

Hotels, Restaurants and Families desiring the freshest Salmon, Clams and other Fish should remember Osman & Clark's New Market, Front street, between A and B streets, where they keep only the best.

An Attractive Place is that Clothing House of Fishel & Roberts, corner of First and Washington streets, with gentlemen and youths. There can be found in endless variety Furnishing Goods, Clothing for Summer wear, and other articles. The finest Cloths that can be had are kept on the counters, which the firm manufactures in the latest styles and guarantee correct fit. Youths' Clothing, as well as all other goods, they offer at the very lowest figures. All who desire anything in the above line should make a note of these facts.

Here we are again, with a New Stock of Summer Clothing, Furnishing Goods, and everything that is indispensable to gentlemen and youths. J. O'Neil & Co., the well known Clothiers at No. 95 First street, are fully prepared to accept orders for the manufacture of Fine Cloths, of which they have a large stock, into Business and Dress Suits and will warrant all they make up to fit to a certainty. Their past reputation is a sufficient guarantee that they can accomplish all they undertake in that line, and in fact anything they promise. Prices rule downward at this house, so bear the above in mind when purchasing.

Housekeepers, Attention.—Monnastes, No. 123 First street, received by last steamer a large invoice of Crockery, Glassware, and other articles in his particular line, and proposes to sell the same to the public at prices that must satisfy everybody. To be convinced just call on him, examine his stock and buy, for you certainly will, as he offers goods at lowest rates and of the best quality.

How to Save Money.—All who are desirous of saving money when buying Clothing, should remember an opportunity is offered to do so by calling at Jos. Kohn & Co.'s extensive Clothing Emporium, No. 91 Front street. At this house an immense stock of Clothing and Furnishing goods for men and boys of every quality and in the latest fashion is to be found, which they will sell off at prices that defy competition. New Goods for Summer wear have arrived, and are opened to the public. Be sure to visit 91 Front street when you want Clothing and Furnishing goods.

The Umatilla House at The Dalles is now completed and furnished in every respect unsurpassed. The office is the most cheerful and pleasant in the State, and the dining hall is unequaled. The rooms are all newly furnished. The house has twelve suites of rooms with stoves in them for families. The new house stands much higher than the old one. The ceilings are four feet higher, which adds greatly to the cheerfulness of the rooms. The table is kept in a style to correspond fully with the appointments.

A Wholesome Stimulant, That is Absolutely Pure.
Physicians throughout the world agree as to the necessity for diffusive stimulants in medical practice, but complain, and with good reason, of the impossibility of obtaining them pure. The difficulty here presented would be a serious one indeed, if the class of agents was limited to the adulterated liquors and wines of trade. It vanishes, however, when the absolute purity and extraordinary restorative properties of Hostetter's Bitters are taken into consideration. As a stimulant the article is absolutely free from everything objectionable; but this is only one of its recommendations. If it were nothing more than an excitant its effects would be fleeting. It might refresh and revive the system for a few minutes, but could produce no permanent benefit. The stimulating element of the Bitters is a means, not an end. The tonic, anti-bilious, depurative and aperient vegetable juices combined in the preparation are the agents that impart vigor and regularity to the weakened and disordered organization, the spirit, in principle being chiefly useful in diffusing their influence through the system and otherwise facilitating their operation. Alcohol, even in its purest form, is not so much a medicine as a motive power, by which the specifics of the vegetable kingdom may be brought to bear upon the debilitated and disordered organs that require renovating and regulating; and it is in this way that the pure essence of rye [illegible] incorporated in Hostetter's Bitters, increase the efficiency of the purely medicinal ingredients.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

THURSDAY EVENING, May 30, 1872.

Gold in New York today, 113[illegible].

Portland Legal Tender rates, [illegible] buying; [illegible] selling.

The steamship John L. Stephens arrived this morning from San Francisco, with 313 passengers and [illegible] tons of assorted cargo.

The A. M. Small and [illegible] are now both discharging iron at Kalama.

The bark Rival has completed discharging cargo at the east side wharf. It has not yet been determined where she will load at, or the character of her return cargo.

The Idaho is expected at this port from Victoria and Sound ports with freight and passengers.

The Gussie Telfair will not sail until the arrival of the Idaho.

The California will sail for Sitka via this port on next Monday from San Francisco.

The Brewster passed over the bar on Wednesday evening. She will probably be up to-morrow.

The Almatia and Falkinburg are both ready for sea.

The Windward is now at Astoria. She will not sail for San Francisco until about Saturday. She will carry a portion of a cargo of assorted produce.

The bark Helen W. Almy is now due at this port from San Francisco with a full cargo.

The following weekly review of the market we clip from the San Francisco Commercial Herald of the 24th May:

Trade is very quiet. People are much absorbed in politics. When the election is over more activity in business is expected.

A report from San Francisco, May 25th, says: "Mercantile and commercial interests are without dispute, in a healthful, prosperous condition. The receipts of merchandise from the East and from abroad aggregate the usual average supply, while the interior demand for [illegible], wares and merchandise [illegible] to be in advance of previous [illegible]. Buyers are numerous and orders frequent from all parts of the Pacific slope. In no department of trade is activity more discernable than in the agricultural implement, hardware and metal stores, foundries, [illegible] shops, woolen mills, and other factories. The [illegible] for agricultural implements exceeds all expectations; sales of horse-powers are constant, including numbers of the largest and best harvesting machines to be found on this coast. The large stock of these goods provided is rapidly passing into the hands of grain-growers, who are anticipating large crops, and who are also purchasing freely of grain sacks."

The market presents no feature of special interest. Business generally is steadily increasing in volume, as the natural result of an increased area of country looking to the Pacific slope for needed supplies of imports—the natural result of increased railroad facilities across the continent. Many of our streets and wharves are taxed to their utmost capacity, receiving and delivering goods, wares and merchandise. This is particularly so in the southern part of the city, where the Pacific Mail and North Pacific Transportation steamers have their respective wharves, and where the Central and Southern Pacific Railroads have their depots. We are now upon the eve of a harvest which promises to be the largest ever gathered upon the Pacific slope. We have now about three weeks to the full grain harvest, and it is too early to say with positiveness what our surplus Wheat crop will "pan out"—perhaps not as much as early estimates placed it, say 600,000 tons. Yet it will be safe to say that we will have a full average crop—fully as much as we have men and means to harvest; certainly more than the promised tonnage supply outward; while the inland tonnage and every available means of carriage and transportation at disposal will be called into constant requisition, and that at the [illegible], in order to get the grain to tide water before the streams cease to be navigable. There are many [illegible] for rushing the Wheat crop to market early in the summer, and the fear is that the pecuniary [illegible] of some will be so great as to occasion many forced sales at low prices.

With a declining market for Wheat in Liverpool and enhanced freights [illegible] here by railroads for Flour to New York, we have had rather a quiet market for both [illegible] without, however, any notable decline in values. Wheat offerings are light, particularly choice White, suited to the manufacture of Extra Flour. The stock remaining in the State is being rapidly reduced and from present indications the surplus will be well nigh exhausted by July, when the new Wheat crop makes its appearance. It is evident that [illegible] now on the Liverpool berth will take a portion of the new crop to fill up.

The steamship John L. Stephens, from Portland, brought 3,782 bbls Flour, of which 1,600 bbls are in gunnies and en route to New York. The export demand is fair, and the Eastern request continued, though the overland volume is checked by the 50c advance in freights—now $3 50 ꝑ bbl to New York and Boston. A shipment of 1,000 bbls Los Gatos Mills Extra for the East has gone forward by rail. The ship Glover for Hongkong has cleared with 45,572 qr sks. Our stock of Oregon Imperial Mills is about 5,000 bbls; price, $6 25@6 50. 500 bbls Oregon Star Mills Superfine sold for local use at $5. The sales of fancy brands Extra Golden Gate, National, Genesee and Commercial Mills are [illegible]; jobbing prices, $6 50@6 62½. Export rates, $6@6 25 according to package. Superfine rules from $4 75 to $5 50 ꝑ 196 lbs.

Stocks of wool continue to accumulate, now about 25,000 sacks. The market is very slack, leading holders firm, not disposed to relax their grip, and demanding 50c and upward for their choice clips. Eastern buyers have for the most part returned home empty handed, not able to purchase at what they considered safe prices. Another [illegible] order has been executed this week, say 500 bags at [illegible] by the same party heretofore buying a like [illegible] at an average of 46c.

Wool markets and Eastern advices continue unfavorable to holders upon this coast. Many, if not all, the Eastern buyers sojourning here for weeks past have left or are soon to take their departure from us, returning East, having been unsuccessful in their mission to this [illegible] prices too high to warrant purchase. Very few [illegible] orders have been executed this spring, and they upon the basis of 45c for average fleece. Some operators [illegible] upon this coast show a growing disposition to make free shipments of their Wool East. This they are compelled to do for their own security. On the whole, the business of the coast in this staple has been unsatisfactory to all interested—all sadly disappointed with [illegible] results. Stocks in warehouse are heavy, estimated at 25,000 bales, and steadily accumulating. The steamship Mokongo brought us but 309 bales Colonial Wool on her last trip; the season having closed, and was one [illegible] satisfactory to the growers in New Zealand and elsewhere.

Our total receipts from Oregon since July 1st, 1871, to May 23d, 1872, inclusive, were of Flour, 123,050 bbls; Wheat, 260,291 ctls. Geniena for Batavia will take 3,965 bbls and 2,000 qr sks.

The receipts of certain articles of Oregon produce from January 1st to date, have been as follows: Flour, qr sks, 327,506; Wheat, ctls, 79,722; Dried Apples, pkgs, 2,416; Ripe do, bxs, 26,096; Pork, bbls, 22; Hams, pkgs, 130; Bacon, cs, 60.

Since the commencement of the present harvest year, July 1st, 1871, forty-two vessels have been dispatched to the United Kingdom and France, with Wheat.

The same paper says:

We are likely to have cable communication with China and Japan sooner than has been generally supposed. The American and West Indian Telegraph Company has applied to Congress for permission to land a cable on some part of the California coast; and as no subsidy of any kind is asked, the application will probably meet with favor. The only assistance required is that two war-vessels, not otherwise employed, shall be detailed to make soundings and surveys, and help in laying the cable. Such an addition would complete the electric circle round the globe. In the meantime, the French Cable Company is placing its coal on board the Great Eastern, preparatory to laying it across the Atlantic; and still another new company, entitled the Great Western Telegraph company, is about making a connection between England and New York, with a branch line to the West Indies. This corporation proposes to charge only one-half the rates now demanded by the monopoly, which will be compelled to make a similar reduction or quit operations.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PORTLAND, MARCH 20, 1872.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policies:

1. To the Constitution of the United States and all its amendments we pledge our unfaltering allegiance; to its authority a willing obedience, to its full and legal construction and enforcement our constant support.

2. That the success of the present National Administration in reducing the public debt, diminishing and equalizing taxation, administering every branch of public affairs with economy and efficiency, forming and improving the civil service, enforcing the laws without fear or favor, protecting the nation's wards with paternal care against the cruel avarice of speculation and fraud, and maintaining friendly relations with Foreign Powers, has been such as to command the approbation of the great majority of the American people, and justly entitle it to the confidence and commendation of every true Republican.

3. We regard the payment of our national debt, in full compliance with all legal obligations to all our creditors everywhere, and in accordance with the true letter and spirit of its contracting, as no longer a question in issue, but that we may be clearly understood, we denounce all forms and degrees of repudiation of that debt, as affirmed by the Democratic party and its sympathizers, as not only national calamities, but positive crimes, and we will never consent to a suspicion of lack of honor or justice in its complete satisfaction.

4. We admit of no distinctions between citizens, whether of native or foreign birth; and therefore we favor the granting of full amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion; and we here pledge the full and effective protection of our civil laws to all persons voluntarily coming to or residing in our land.

5. We favor the encouragement of railroads by the General Government of the United States, and hold that such disposition should be made of the public lands as shall secure the same to actual settlers only, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres.

6. That while we are in favor of a revenue for the support of the General Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such adjustment of those duties on imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interest of the whole country; and we recommend that policy of national exchange which secures to the working men liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the Nation commercial prosperity and independence.

7. We believe that popular education is the sole true basis and hope of a free government, and shall ever oppose any diversion of, or interference with the common school funds or lands in this state, for any other than their legitimate purpose, and we condemn the act of favoritism by the last Legislature whereby two hundred thousand dollars, taken from the school fund, were granted to a corporation consisting mainly of Democratic leaders and party favorites, for the construction of a work which another corporation, entirely sound and responsible, offered to construct for seventy-two thousand dollars less; and that we are in favor of the passage by the Legislature of an efficient school law, such as shall secure to all citizens of our State a good common school education.

8. We find no terms sufficiently strong to express our disapproval of those acts of the last Legislature whereby the swamp lands belonging to this State have been taken from the needy settlers, and given without limit or price or competition in price to the land grabber and speculator, whereby the emoluments and salaries of State officers have been unconstitutionally increased, and the taxes increased thousands of dollars by the creation of new and unnecessary offices and salaries, for the purpose of providing for party favorites, and whereby the citizens of our metropolis have been deprived of and denied the right of controlling their police authority. And we equally condemn the administration of our State officers and laws as extravagant, reckless, illegal and destructive, and we rightfully charge all these results as the acts of the Democratic party.

9. We are in favor of the United States giving to each honorably discharged soldier who served in the armies of the United States to put down the rebellion a warrant for a homestead of 160 acres of public lands.

10. That we demand the repeal of the so-called litigant act, which was devised to support pauper Democratic newspapers at the public expense.

11. That the Republican party of this State are in favor of the General Government extending aid toward building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Salt Lake City, and from Jackson county to Humboldt, and we hereby pledge our party representatives to the support of the same.

12. That the indiscriminate licensing of persons to sell spirituous liquors without being placed under proper responsibilities for the abuse thereof having been found by experience to promote the growth of crime and pauperism, and thereby to seriously increase the rate of taxation, the Republican party recognizes the right and duty of the law-making power to prevent and limit the evils and abuses of such sale, so far as concerns the public good and is consistent with individual liberty, by refusing to license other than law-abiding and responsible persons, who can furnish sufficient sureties for good conduct.

13. That the Republican party of Oregon is in favor of obtaining assistance from the [illegible] for the construction of a wagon road from [illegible] and necessary [illegible] the State.

14. We affirm that the [illegible]

RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,

Oregon and California R. R. Co. and European and Oregon Land Co.,

PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:

The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to-wit:

Preemption, Date, No. ——.

To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:

SIR: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of —— State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:

"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market, provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."

(Name of applicant.)

(Postoffice address.)

When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO. ——.

This is to certify that —— of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.

When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.

(Signed) Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.

The lands will be appraised by [illegible] to all interested party, under oath, at their actual present value, [illegible] prospective prices on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantities not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual installments, with interest from date of contract at ten per cent. per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.

Blank forms of application furnished upon request.

I. R. MOORES,

AN ORDINANCE [illegible]

[illegible]

Section 2. [illegible]

Section 3. No person owning or occupying any [illegible] shall place or cause to be placed [illegible] such building or premises any sign or notice [illegible] place any goods, wares or merchandise upon the sidewalk by way of show advertisement or otherwise [illegible] more than two feet outside of the inner line of the sidewalk, except the same be placed at a height of not less than ten feet above said sidewalk, or suspend or cause to be suspended [illegible] over the street beyond the line of the curb in front of said building or premises any sign, advertisement or flag, except upon holidays, election days and days of public parade or display.

Section 4. No person shall place or cause to be placed on any crosswalk, sidewalk, or street, any article or thing whatsoever which shall obstruct such street or sidewalk, for a longer period than four hours except as provided in section 3 of this ordinance; Provided, That this section shall not apply to merchandise while in the actual course of receipt or delivery, and further provided that wood for fuel may be allowed to be piled and remain in the street in such manner as to cause the least obstruction to public travel not to exceed forty-eight hours for each cord thereof and not to exceed ten days in the aggregate, without a permit from the Street Commissioner, approved by the Committee on Streets and Public Property—which said permit shall specify the number of days not to exceed thirty. This section shall not be deemed to affect the deposit of building material under a permit as provided by ordinance No. 1145 entitled "An ordinance relating to the use of streets for building purposes and the removal of buildings."

Section 5. No person shall throw into or deposit upon any public street, highway or grounds or upon any private premises or anywhere, except in such places as may be designated by the Street Commissioner, any glass, metal, broken ware, dirt, rubbish, garbage or filth, and no person shall carry upon any sidewalk, (exposed so as to be offensive to pedestrians, any rubbish, garbage or filth.)

Section 6. No person shall drive, wheel or draw upon any sidewalk any vehicle except hand carriages for children; and no person having the charge or control of any beast of burden, shall intentionally cause or permit the same to stand upon any street crossing or so near thereto as to obstruct the same.

Section 7. Any person owning or having control of any premises fronting on a public street, and below the grade thereof shall, within five days after notice from the Street Commissioner, requiring him so to do at his own expense, erect a suitable barricade upon the inner line of the sidewalk in front of such premises.

Section 8. Any person by whom or under whose immediate direction, or by whose immediate authority as principal or as contractor or employee, any portion of a public street has been made dangerous, shall erect, and so long as the danger may exist, maintain around the portion of the street or highway so made dangerous, a good and sufficient barrier.

Section 9. A violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be deemed a misdemeanor and, upon conviction before the Police Judge, the offender or offenders shall be punished by a fine of not less than five, nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail not less than two nor more than twenty days for each and every offence.

Section 10. Ordinance No. 142, entitled "An ordinance to prevent and remove obstructions of streets and sidewalks," ordinance No. 579 and 921, amendatory thereto, ordinance No. 662, entitled "An ordinance in relation to awnings and awning posts," and ordinance No. 312 entitled "An ordinance to prevent and remove obstructions from the sidewalks," are hereby repealed.

Passed the Common Council May 22, 1872.

Ordinance No. 1169.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of West Park street lying between the south line of Stark street and the center line of Salmon street.

The city of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of West Park street lying between the south line of Stark street and the center line of Salmon street shall be completed in the manner hereinafter provided on or before the 15th day of July, 1872.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all plank, timbers or other obstacles of perishable materials (sidewalks, crosswalks and plank roadways of the proper width and grade excepted). If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots, within three days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading, and laying sidewalks and crosswalks and plank gutter where necessary.

Section 4. The work to be done and materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of and under the restrictions contained in sections 6, 7, 8, 9, 11 and 12 of Ordinance No. 791, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Ordinance No. 1170.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of Alder street lying between the east line of Tenth street and the west line of Twelfth street.

The city of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of Alder street lying between the east line of Tenth street and the west line of Twelfth street, shall be completed in the manner hereinafter provided, on or before the 15th day of July 1872.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all planks, timbers, or other obstacles of perishable materials (sidewalks, crosswalks and plank roadways of the proper width and grade excepted). If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading, laying sidewalks and crosswalks, a plank roadway sixteen feet in width and plank gutters where necessary.

Section 4. The work to be done and materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of, and under the restrictions contained in Sections 6, 7, 8, 10, 11 and 12 of Ordinance No. 791, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident resulting from carelessness or neglect.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council May 22, 1872.

W. S. CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved May 24, 1872.

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. [illegible] 1854, for the treatment of [illegible] and [illegible] Diseases, such as [illegible] rhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of [illegible] years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible] successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of [illegible] has returned from visiting the [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his [illegible] Kearny street, corner of Commercial, [illegible] where his old patients and those re[illegible] may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money [illegible] ing out new remedies, and has returned with [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of human [illegible]

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a [illegible] ence from the effects of secret indulgence, or [illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at their pale, [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken-down [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid [illegible] sands suffer until death closes the scene. Let [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible, life-destroying [illegible] they are cared for and cured before it be too late. [illegible] them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a physician [illegible] made private diseases his especial study for [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate case, [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the [illegible] doctors who infest all cities, publishing their [illegible] ing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians [illegible] and other places. Be therefore careful and make inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these [illegible] tans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of a [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing with unerring certainty, the following morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark [illegible] eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form new [illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of me[illegible] pimples and various eruptions about the [illegible] tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, [illegible] monomania and frequent insanity. If relief [illegible] tained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and [illegible] mode of treating this disease, which never [illegible] ing a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor fail to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to a radical and permanent cure, or make no [illegible]

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, [illegible] toms, length of time the disease has [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By including Ten D[illegible] in a letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to [illegible] of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the [illegible] some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers [illegible] stores and other places, are tr[illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to [illegible] inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians [illegible] cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in [illegible] any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus [illegible] titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office, [illegible] his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
